AFFIDAVIT

I, ANGELA A. CONDE, being duly sworn, depose and say:

1. I am a Special Agent with the United States Secret Service (USSS) and have been so employed since December, 1998. I am currently assigned to the Miami Field Office of the USSS and my duties include, among other things, the investigation of counterfeit United States Federal Reserve Notes (currency).

2. This affidavit is based upon my personal knowledge and information which has been provided to me by other law enforcement officers. Because this affidavit is being submitted for the limited purpose of showing probable cause for a complaint, it does not include all the details of the investigation of RAMIN BAHARMAST and DAVID APPELEGATE

3. During an ongoing United States Secret Service and Drug Enforcement Administration investigation, information was provided by a reliable confidential informant of an individual arriving in the South Florida area with counterfeit U.S. currency.

4. On August 15, 2000, Special Agents of the United States Secret Service and Drug Enforcement Administration Task force conducted surveillance on RAMIN BAHARMAST and observed him meeting with DAVID APPELEGATE at approximately 2:30 PM in the Boca Raton area. During the meeting an exchange of some sort of packaging was observed by surveillance agents. RAMIN BAHARMAST was then observed departing the meeting and driving south to the Coconut Creek area. USSS and DEA agents following BAHARMAST observed the subject examining U.S. Federal Reserve Notes, whereupon a traffic stop was conducted by the City of Coconut Creek Police Department.

5. RAMIN BAHARMAST consented to a vehicle search. During the search, $12,000.00 in counterfeit U.S. Federal Reserve Notes were recovered hidden in the back lining of the driver seat. The counterfeit Federal Reserve Notes were wrapped in a plastic seran wrap.

6. RAMIN BAHARMAST was placed under arrest for possession of counterfeit U.S. currency. Post-Miranda, BAHARMAST admitted to having met with a second subject, DAVID APPELEGATE and receiving $4,500.00 in genuine U.S. currency as payment for APPELEGATE'S purchase of $15,000.00 in counterfeit currency earlier in the morning on August 15, 2000. BAHARMAST also provided the Agents consent to search his residence in Boca Raton and admitted to having an additional $160,000.00 in counterfeit in a Self Storage warehouse. HABARMAST consented verbally and lead Agents to the storage warehouse where the additional $160,000.00 in counterfeit was recovered inside a black attache briefcase. BAHARMAST stated that DAVID APPELEGATE had negotiated to receive an additional amount of counterfeit . Thereafter BAHARMAST contacted APPELEGATE via a consensually monitored telephone call and arranged a meeting in order to provide APPELEGATE with the additional $160,000.00 in counterfeit U.S. Federal Reserve Notes.

7. On August 15, 2000, USSS and DEA Task Force Agents set up surveillance at the arranged meeting place between BAHARMAST and APPELEGATE. APPELEGATE was observed arriving at the location and was placed under arrest.

8. Post-Miranda APPELEGATE admitted to meeting with BAHARMAST in the morning of August 15, 2000 and receiving $15,000.00 in counterfeit U.S. Federal Reserve Notes. APPELEGATE stated he met BAHARMAST in the afternoon of August 15, 2000, at approximately 2:30 PM and paid BAHARMAST $4,500.00 for the counterfeit Federal Reserve Notes he received. APPELEGATE stated he sold the counterfeit $15,000 in U.S. Federal Reserve Notes earlier this same date.

9. In view of the foregoing, I submit there is probable cause to believe that on August 15, 2000, in Ft. Lauderdale, Broward County in the Southern District of Florida, RAMIN BAHARMAST and DAVID APPELEGATE, did willfully and knowingly possess and conspire to distribute counterfeit U.S. Federal Reserve Notes and securities in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371 and 473.

AFFIANT SAYETH FURTHER NAUGHT.

ANGELA A. CONDE, SPECIAL AGENT
UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE
